Granville W. Harman's plurality for Register on the Republican ticket is estimated to be over 25,000. The vote this morning with several wards still missing was: Harman, Rep., 80,228; Cummings, Dem., 54,703; Hentz, Ref. Dem., 17,336. The office of County Register is worth in fees about $160,600 a year.

The returns for County Clerk were complete this morning and give the following vote: Glendenning, Dem., 54,325; Fismner, Ref. Dem., 17,022. Saffen's plurality is 24,07.

The returns for County Treasurer with all wards accounted for were: Bonning-ton, Dem., 66,177; Taylor, Rep., 76,484; Kelley, Ref. Dem., 17,370. Taylor's plurality is 20,307.

Both of these offices are worth about $50,000 a year to the incumbent.

Palmer, the Republican candidate for City Comptroller was elected by a good majority. The vote cast with several districts still missing was: Palmer, Rep., 75,164; Davenport, Dem., 56,344; Greene, Ref. Dem., 15,489. Palmer's plurality, 18,539.

There are still 68 districts missing on

There are still 68 districts missing on the returns for City Auditor, but they will have little or no effect on the Rebublican nominee's plurality of 20,265 and he vote was: Sutton, Rep., 74,382; Grim, Dem., 54,77; Wright, Ref. Dem., 15,573. In the Assembly contests the returns show that fifteen of the eighteen representatives elected from Kings County tre Republican.

sentatives elected from Kings County are Republican.

The three lucky Democrats are: Hennesy of the Second: Gallagher, of the Fourth and Cain of the Eighth. Hennesy's plurality over his Republican opponent. Quick, is not more than 80 and his seat is to be contested.

It is claimed that in the Tenth Ward, which is a part of Hennesy's district, illegal measures were resorted to by the Democrats, and that Quick ought to have a plurality of 100.

It is believed that the Shepard wing of the Democracy did not poll over 20,000 votes in the city. They claim to have 23,000 names upon their roll books.

County Clerk and Poor Supt.

the City Hill Carried Long Island City by the Paltry Majority of 385.

> (Special to The Evening World.)
> LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., Nov. 7. There is great rejoicing among the Republicans here to-day. This city, which was always regarded as the stronghold of Democracy in Queens County, and which usually gives a Democratic majority of from 1,700 to 2,000 narrowly escaped drifting into the Republican col umn yesterday.

Senator Hill's majority in the five wards was only 585. When he spoke here at a ratification meeting a few weeks ago Mayor Sanford promised him a majority of 2,500 votes. Out of a total of 6,307 votes cast, Hill received 3,299, Morton 2.914 and Wheeler 94.

Joseph E. Fitch, the Democratic candidate for Congress, who expected a majority of 2,200 in this city, received only 159. He polled 3,234 votes against 3,075 cast for ex-Gov. Richard C. McCormack, the Republican candidate. Mc-Cormack, however, is elected by a very Cormack, however, is elected by a very large majority, as Suffolk County, which is part of the First Congressional District, gave the Republican candidate a majority of nearly 2,090.

John H. Sutphin, who has been the Democratic County Clerk of Queens County for the past thirty years, is reelected. Out of a total vote of 6,332 he received 4,145, a majority of 1,358 over his Republican opponent, Charles L. Phipps.

received 4.146, a majority of 1,368 over his Republican opponent, Charles L. Phipps.

Sutphin's vote was materially reduced by the friends of John Mitchell, Democratic candiate for Sheriff, who peddled the Phipps pasters in the First Ward in order to defeat Sutphin for his millilation with ex-Mayor Patrick J. Gleason. Phil J. Cronin, the Democratic candidate for County Superintendent of the Poor, was re-ejected by a majority of 1,821 votes. John F. Madden, the Jeffersonian candidate for member of Assembly in the First District, barely pulled through. His opponents were ex-Mayor Patrick J. Gleason, the self-nominated candidate of the Regular Democratic party, and Theron H. Burden, the Republican nominee. Out of a total vote of 6,234, Madden received 2,475; Gleason, 2,151, and Burden, 1,688.

Gleason had two tickets in the field, one headed by Morton and Saxton, and the other by David B. Hill. This was a scheme to catch Republican votes.

The greatest surprise of all, however, was the defeat of John J. Mitchell, although a resident of this city, received only 2,888 votes, against 2,405 cast for Henry Doht, the Republican nominee. Lucien Knapp, the Gleason-Republican candidate for City Treasurer of this city, defeated the present incumbent, Frederick W. Blecken, the Jeffersonian candidate, by 382 votes. Knapp's total vote was 3,335.

Churchili J. Reeves, a young chemist, of 335 Lexington avenue, Brooklyn, is laid up to-day for repairs. Mr. Reeves stood for several hours in front of a builetin-board on Bedford avenue, near Fulton street, last night.

As the news came in his feelings rose higher and higher, and a bulletin announcing that Morton had carried the State by over 100,000, threw him into such exuberance that he threw up his shouts.

While Mr. Reeves was executing a Republican war dance, a fist shot out from the start of the campaign.

The defeat of Congressman Johnston Corrish in the Fourth District was not positively announced until late this morning. His own county, Warren, went the New Jersey Legislature will have a big working majority. Even the race track issue of last year did not result in such a Waterloo for the Democrats. All the counties except Hudson, Hunterdon and Warren elected Republican Assemblymen. Gulick and Chamberlain were the successful Democrats in Warren and Hunterdon. The latter county also elected a Democratic Stae Senator. The five other State Senators elected were Republicans.
